

Dr. David A. Scott

Campus Director - IntelliTec College of Pueblo

Dr. Scott believes strongly in the ability of education to change lives for the better. At IntelliTec College, he sees evidence of this change daily.

Scott started with IntelliTec College in 2011 as an Applied General Education teacher for the Colorado Springs Campus. He then served there for two years as the Dean of Faculty before accepting the position of Campus Director for the Grand Junction Campus. In July of 2015, Dr. Scott took over the role of Campus Director for the Pueblo Campus.

Prior to working for IntelliTec, Dr. Scott served for 25 years in the Army as a Combat Medic and a Licensed Practical Nurse, and retired as a First Sergeant. He has held several other key leadership positions in the medical and education fields.

Dr. Scott holds a Doctorate in Educational Leadership, a Masters of Arts in Curriculum and Instruction, a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education, and an Associate of Applied Science in Nursing Studies.
